Amendments

Section 1. Before adopting, amending, or repealing any rule, the Board shall give all Owners notice of:

(a) Its intention to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule and provide the text of the rule or the proposed change; and

(b) A date on which the Board will act on the proposed rule or amendment after considering comments from Owners.

Section 2. Following adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, the Association shall notify the Owners of its action and provide a copy of any new or revised rule.

Section 3. These By-Laws may be amended, pursuant to the Declaration, or at a regular or special meeting of the Owners, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of the class of Owners entitled to vote present in person or by proxy, provided that those provisions of these By-Laws which are governed by the Articles of Incorporation of the Association may not be amended except as permitted in the Articles of Incorporation or applicable law; and provided further that any matter stated herein to be or which is in fact governed by the Declaration may not be amended except as provided in the Declaration, or as may be required by the Act.

Section 4. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these By-Laws, the Declaration shall control. In any case, the mandatory provisions of the Act shall control.

ARTICLE XVIII

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Each director, officer, former director and former officer of this Association and the legal representatives thereof shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Association against liabilities, expenses, counsel fees and costs reasonably incurred by him/her or his/her estate in connection with or arising out of any action, suit, proceeding or claim in which he/she is made a party by reason of his being, or having been, such director or officer; provided that the Association shall not indemnify such director or officer with respect to any matters as to which he/she shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his/her duties as such director or officer. The indemnification herein provided for, however, shall apply also in respect of any amount paid in compromise of any such action, suit, proceeding or claim asserted against such director or officer (including expenses, counsel fees and costs reasonably incurred in connection therewith), provided the Board shall have first approved such proposed compromise settlement and determined that the director or officer involved was not guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct; but in taking such action any director involved shall not be qualified to vote thereon, and if for this reason a quorum of the Board cannot be obtained to vote on such matter, it shall be determined by a committee of three (3) persons appointed by the Owners at a duly called special meeting or at an annual meeting. In determining whether or not a director or officer was guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in relation to any such matters, the Board or committee appointed by the members, as the case may be, may rely conclusively upon an opinion of independent legal counsel selected by such Board or committee. Any compromise settlement authorized herein shall not be effective until submitted to and approved by a court of competent jurisdiction. The right to indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which such director or officer may be lawfully entitled.

ARTICLE XIX

The Association shall promptly provide notice to the Owners of any legal proceedings in which the Association is a party other than proceedings involving enforcement of rules affecting the Association or the Declarations, or to recover unpaid assessments or other sums due the Association.

Section 3. The Association shall establish a reasonable method for Owners to communicate among themselves and with the Board concerning the Association.
